Expect more from your distributor.

To meet operational and financial goals, you face the daunting task of cutting costs without forgoing quality or safety. Low product mark-ups are a nice place to start, but that's not nearly enough – you need an end-to-end solution that reduces expenses and eliminates waste across your entire supply chain. With the specialized expertise of Suture Express, you'll avoid supply-related setbacks and get highest total value through optimized purchasing efficiencies, inventory reduction support, competitive cost structures with no hidden fees, and so much more.

When you NEED to:

Lower your costs.

Lighten the load on operating costs with lean inventory management. Double your inventory turns to drive down waste, and combine tracking data with just-in-time delivery to eliminate the expense of excess on-hand inventory.

Avoid stock outs.

Not having the right supplies creates hassles for everyone. Our 99.4% fill rate means the products your clinicians need will always be there, so you can eliminate the rework, expenses and headaches that occur when other suppliers let you down.

Understand your pricing.

To stay on budget, you need contracts without unwanted surprises. Know what to expect from our full pricing transparency with no hidden fees, full credit on conversions, flat shipping rates and always-low mark-ups at Suture Express.
